Mother's in the garden with the bees, with the bees

G//// ////

Mother's in the garden with the bees, with the bees

C//// ////

She builds a home that she fills her days looking after

Brother's hands are busy on the drum, on the drum

Brother's hands are busy on the drum, on the drum

And he keeps the beat of every passing sun

When mountains have parted you

You'll hear it in your heart for years to come, years to come

Interlude: G//// //// //// //// C//// //// G//// //// F//// C//// G//// ////

Sister's in the swing, she's a-dreaming, she's a-dreaming

Sister's in the swing, she's a-dreaming, she's a-dreaming

Of all the places she will go and all the things she will do

Baby sister, take a moment to look at all the gold that surrounds you

Father makes a meal of meat and wine, meat and wine

Father makes a meal of meat and wine, meat and wine

And he calls, he calls us all to our chair

And he sits at the head with silver in his eyes and in his hair

He sits at the head with silver in his eyes and in his hair, in his hair
